Township of Findlay

January 17, 2025

To Whom It May Concern:

The Township of Findlay is once again the process of planning for its annual Independence Day Celebration on July 3, 2025. This family friendly event is a highly attended by township residents and provides a unique experience for all who attend. We are able to provide this event to our residents and neighbors because of the generous donations from our local businesses. We hope you will consider sponsoring this community celebration.

By participating as a sponsor, your company will receive exposure on many forms of advertising for this event. There are three levels of sponsorship to choose from or you may choose a different donation amount. Please see attached form for selection.

Thank you for your thoughtful consideration to contribute to this local community event. We look forward to your participation and support for an outstanding 2025 celebration. Please complete the enclosed sponsorship form and return with donation to the address listed.

Sincerely,

Ashley Mays
